

If You Listen Closely, the Turkey is Really Saying, "BUCKLE! BUCKLE! BUCKLE!"

Thanksgiving is one of the busiest travel times of the year. Whether you are driving 10 or 100 miles to your holiday destination, it is important to buckle up every trip, every time.

Regular seat belt use is the single most effective way to protect people and reduce fatalities in motor vehicle crashes and we want our school to have ZERO FATALITIES during this holiday break.

Remember, many of us over-indulge in holiday goodies and loosen our belts a little after dinner but there's nothing that should keep you from tightening your seat belt when you get in a motor vehicle. The potential consequences are just too great.

Just because you are out of school doesn't mean you are off duty. Click-It Cadets are always on duty. So, buckle up and remind everyone in the vehicle to do the same.
